

KMCH IHSR – Liver Transplant Unit

One of the Best Liver Treatment centre in Coimbatore, Tamil Nadu – KMCH Medical College Hospital the Liver Unit at KMCH Medical College Hospital offers a multidisciplinary team approach which is essential for successful patient outcomes. It is a comprehensive, multidisciplinary disease-management centre specializing in diseases of the liver, bile ducts and pancreas.

Hepatobiliary and Pancreatic Surgery

- Open and laparoscopic liver resection using tissue dissection techniques.
- Whipple procedure (pancreaticoduodenectomy)
- Complex biliary resection and reconstruction of bile duct for injuries and malignancy
- Surgical shunts for portal hypertension.

Hepatology:

Management of cirrhosis and portal hypertension:

- Medical management.
- Transjugular intrahepatic portosystemic shunt (TIPS)
- Endoscopic therapy
- Surgical shunt

Treatment of acute and chronic liver disease, including

- Alcoholic Liver Disease
- Hepatitis A
- Hepatitis B
- Hepatitis C
- Autoimmune hepatitis
- Fatty liver
- Percutaneous, CT-guided, and trans jugular liver biopsy
- Fibro Scan® device for the diagnosis and treatment of liver disease – the Fibro Scan® procedure offers patients a new scanning technology to measure the degree of fibrosis (scarring), or stiffness, in the liver without the need for a biopsy

Team of Consultants:

We have an experienced team of doctors with many years of experience in HPB & liver transplant surgery.

Enquiry on Liver Transplant: 82207 43843

